Although minor disagreements exist between Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) officials and Chinese Communist advisors in Vietnam, primarily on technical subjects, relations between the two are generally good. The DRV is conducting an extensive propaganda campaign among the people to create goodwill toward the Chinese Communists. Mass receptions among the local populations are organized to welcome the arrival of Chinese Communist arms. The people are provided with gifts for the Chinese troops which are always refused and turned over to DRV troops in the area by the Chinese.
